CLASSES & EVENTS

Kids

Preschool Storytime: every Friday at 10:30am

Enjoy winter-themed stories, crafts and activities. Family members are invited to join in!

*We'll celebrate Penguin Awareness Day on January 18! Join us for special stories and a craft, and wear black and white (optional).

LegoMania: Monday, January 7, 5:00-6:30pm

School-age kids are invited to use our Legos to build a creation which we will display in the Library's lobby. We host LegoMania on the first Monday of every month.

Middle & High Schoolers

Perler Beads: Monday, January 14, 3:30pm

Use Perler beads to make your favorite emoji, character, animal, or whatever! This event is free and no registration is necessary.

Adults

Farnsworth Foodies - Soup! Tuesday, January 8 at 5pm

Cook a themed dish to pass and join us! January's theme is soup. We'll sample everyone's dishes and exchange recipes. Please bring a finished, home-cooked dish, a serving utensil, and a copy of the recipe. No registration necessary.

Cozy Mystery Book Club: Thursday, January 10, 2pm

"Cozies" are lighter mysteries, generally featuring amateur sleuths, small towns, and some comic relief. Our informal club has no required reading - share your favorite cozy mysteries and why you like them, or just come to get some good recommendations.

DIY Book Wreath: Tuesday, January 15, 5pm

Use book pages to make a charming wreath that never goes out of season. Choose one from a variety of styles (shown at right). No registration necessary. All supplies will be provided, but we will happily accept book donations!

Try these designs at our
DIY Book Wreath class on Tuesday, January 15!

OTHER NEWS

The Friends of Farnsworth Public Library

2018 Best Friend of Farnsworth Public Library: Caroline Laurin-Young

We are thrilled to announce that Caroline Laurin-Young is the recipient of the 2018 'Best Friend' award. Caroline has volunteered at many fundraising events over the years and also serves as the board president. Thanks, Caroline, for your dedication and service to The Friends of Farnsworth Public Library.

Thank you to everyone who helped the Friends out in December by...

*donating to the Cookie & Candy Sale.

*buying tickets for the holiday raffle.

And thank you to everyone who donated to the Friends throughout 2018. We appreciate your support!
